

Form GA1

Application for accreditation as a gas appliance worker

Type of Application

New Application

Reapplication

Renewal

Accreditation number

Applicant Details

Title Surname

Given Names

Date of Birth

Home Address

Suburb State Postcode

Postal Address

Suburb State Postcode

Phone Number Business Hours Mobile

Facsimile Number

Email address

Gas appliance worker accreditation

Please indicate in the table below the type of accreditation/s that you are applying, reapplying for or renewing:

Note: For persons applying or reapplying you must indicate the method by which you are applying in accordance with the relevant 'Guidelines for Applicants' and provide certified copies of all documents relating to your application including photo identification. The Guideline for Applicants document is available in the ACT Planning and Land Authority website www.actpla.act.gov.au.

The authority for accreditation comes from the Gas Safety (Appliance Worker Accreditation Code), which is a code made under the Gas Safety Regulation 2001, section 17A and can be viewed on the ACT Legislation Register website at www.legislation.act.gov.au

Accreditation Type	Application Method	Certified copies of documents that need to be submitted with the application:
<input type="checkbox"/> Type A Allows the accredited person to disconnect, reconnect and service Type A gas appliances in accordance with the gas safety legislation	<input type="checkbox"/> Method 1 Holder of gasfitter's licence, advanced gasfitter's licence or journeyman gasfitter's licence	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identity certificate, eg. driver's licence, passport or birth certificate - Gasfitter's licence, advanced gasfitter's licence or journeyman gasfitter's licence
	<input type="checkbox"/> Method 2 A person accredited in the ACT or under an approved scheme of another State or Territory	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identity certificate, eg. driver's licence, passport or birth certificate - Documents of accreditation achieved under an approved scheme
	<input type="checkbox"/> Method 3 A person with two or more years of Type A appliance work experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identity certificate, eg. driver's licence, passport or birth certificate - Letter of recommendation from an accredited appliance worker - Documents showing two or more years of relevant work experience (eg. Written statements from current or previous employers, written statements from manufacturer members of the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association of Australia Inc, written statements from any licensed gasfitter who has supervised or witnessed the applicant's work
	<input type="checkbox"/> Method 4 A person who has completed an approved training course	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identity certificate, eg. driver's licence, passport or birth certificate - Documents showing the satisfactory completion of an approved training course
<input type="checkbox"/> Type A trainee allows a person who does not have 2 or more years of proven work experience in Type A gas appliance work to disconnect, reconnect and service Type A gas appliances under the supervision of a person who holds Type A Appliance Worker accreditation	<input type="checkbox"/> Method 1 A person accredited in the ACT or under an approved scheme of another State or Territory	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identity certificate, eg. driver's licence, passport or birth certificate - Documents of accreditation achieved under an approved scheme
	<input type="checkbox"/> Method 2 A person who does not have 2 or more years of proven work experience in Type A gas appliance work, and who is working under the supervision of an accredited Type A appliance worker	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identity certificate, eg. driver's licence, passport or birth certificate - Letter from their employer confirming employment, the name of the person who will perform the supervision of training, and that persons Type A appliance worker accreditation details

<input type="checkbox"/> Type B Allows the accredited person to install, service, design, modify and commission work on the components between the gas isolation valve adjacent to the appliance and the flue spigot of Type B appliances in accordance with the gas safety legislation	<input type="checkbox"/> Method 1 A person is accredited in the ACT or under an approved Type B appliance scheme in another State or Territory	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identity certificate, eg. driver's licence, passport or birth certificate - Documents of accreditation achieved under an approved scheme
	<input type="checkbox"/> Method 2 A person who has Satisfactorily completed an approved training course	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identity certificate, eg. driver's licence, passport or birth certificate - Documents showing the satisfactory completion of an approved training course
	<input type="checkbox"/> Method 3 A person with two or more years of Type B appliance work experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identity certificate, eg. driver's licence, passport or birth certificate - Letter of recommendation from an accredited appliance worker - Documents showing two or more years of relevant work experience (eg. Written statements from current or previous employers, written statements from manufacturer members of the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association of Australia Inc, written statements from any licensed gasfitter who has supervised or witnessed the applicant's work)
<input type="checkbox"/> Restricted Type B Allows the accredited person to install, service and commission work on the components between the gas isolation valve adjacent to the appliance and the flue spigot of Type B appliances in accordance with the gas safety legislation and the restrictions specified under the accreditation. It also allows the holder to change components on a like for like basis	<input type="checkbox"/> Method 1 A person is accredited in the ACT or under an approved Type B appliance scheme in another State or Territory	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identity certificate, eg. driver's licence, passport or birth certificate - Documents of accreditation achieved under an approved scheme
	<input type="checkbox"/> Method 2 A person who has Satisfactorily completed an approved training course	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identity certificate, eg. driver's licence, passport or birth certificate - Documents showing the satisfactory completion of an approved training course
	<input type="checkbox"/> Method 3 A person with two or more years of Type B appliance work experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identity certificate, eg. driver's licence, passport or birth certificate - Letter of recommendation from an accredited appliance worker - Documents showing two of more years of relevant work experience (eg; written statements from current or previous employers, written statements from manufacturer members of the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association of Australia Inc, written statements from any licensed gasfitter who has supervised or witnessed the applicants work)

<input type="checkbox"/> Restricted Type B trainee Allows a person who does not have 2 or more years of proven work experience in Type B gas appliance work to disconnect, reconnect and service Restricted Type B gas appliances under the supervision of a person who holds Type B Appliance Worker accreditation	<input type="checkbox"/> Method 1 A person who has restricted Type B Trainee accreditation in the ACT or under an approved scheme of another State or Territory	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identity certificate, eg. driver's licence, passport or birth certificate - Documents of accreditation achieved under an approved scheme
	<input type="checkbox"/> Method 2 A person who does not have 2 or more years of proven work experience in restricted Type B appliance work, and who is working under the supervision of an accredited restricted Type B appliance worker, or an accredited Type B appliance worker	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identity certificate, eg. driver's licence, passport or birth certificate - Letter from their employer confirming employment, the name of the person who will perform the supervision of training, and that persons Type B or Type B Restricted appliance worker accreditation details

Application Fees

Fees apply to this application and will vary depending on the accreditation type. Please refer the ACT Planning and Land Authority "Fees and Charges Booklet" available on the ACTPLA website www.actpla.act.gov.au

Note: No fees apply to a Type A accreditation if you are licensed as a gasfitter in the ACT.

Please provide your ACT Gasfitter licence number

Applicant Declaration

I declare that all the information contained and attached to this application is complete, accurate and true to the best of my knowledge. I understand that there are severe penalties for providing false or misleading information.

Signature _____ Date / / _____

Privacy Notice
 Information you are asked to provide will be used to assess your ability to be accredited under the Gas Safety Act 2000. The lawful authority for the collection of this information is the Gas Safety Act 2000. The information may be disclosed to other Registration Authorities. If your application is successful your details will be entered into the Register. Some of this information will be made available on the ACT Planning and Land Authority's website.

Contact Details:
 ACT Planning and Land Authority
 Customer Service Centre
 GPO Box 1908, Canberra City 2601
 16 Challis Street, Dickson ACT 2602
 Business Hours: 8.30am to 4.30pm weekdays (excluding Public Holidays)
 Phone: (02) 6207 1923 Fax: (02) 6207 1925 TTY: (02) 6207 2622
Email: actpla.customer.services@act.gov.au
Website: www.actpla.act.gov.au